

By the Numbers: Living Green Adds Up

20,000	Gallons of water saved annually in Puget Sound Energy Built Green Idea Home, using water-efficient appliances, aerators, showerheads and more
1,400	Acres of permanent open space for local habitat, so wildlife and Issaquah Highlands residents can co-exist
1,000	The number of spaces at new Metro Park & Ride at Issaquah Highlands, to encourage carpooling and HOV-lane ridership
120	Acres of protected wetlands at Issaquah Highlands, to promote a healthy ecosystem balancing storm water control and wildlife habitat
98% protection reduces	Less damaging ultra-violet rays by using solar window coatings; fading on curtains, furniture and flooring
55%	Improved efficiency over standard code water heaters with the Idea Home's tankless water heater
$35 PSE	Savings on purchase of an Energy Star Whirlpool clothes washer with rebate
32% typical home	Less indoor water use in PSE Built Green Idea Home compared to a built to code
25% code.	Less energy used in PSE Built Green Idea Home over homes built to
25 machine	Gallons of water saved per wash cycle with Whirlpool's front loading wash
20%	Annual water savings per toilet, using a dual flush bathroom toilet, like the one displayed at the PSE Built Green Idea Home
$559,800 percent	Listing price for PSE Built Green Idea Home at Issaquah Highlands – with all the energy-saving features listed above. Such features run about 5 percent of the home's price – a premium returned to the homeowner in operational savings and health benefits