

Awards & Recognition

2006

Master Builders Association. Built Green Hammer Award

Associated Builders and Contractors. Excellence in Construction Award for Blakely Hall

2005

Two Green Globes™. Green Building Initiative (GBI) for Blakely Hall

United States Green Building Council. Silver LEED® (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) Award for Blakely Hall

Green Globe Award for Leadership in Sustainable Building. King County

Leadership Award for Green Building. City of Issaquah commends Port Blakely Communities for green building initiatives at Issaquah Highlands

National Association of Home Builders. Silver Award – Masterplanned Community of the Year

National Association of Home Builders. Silver Award – Best Single-Family Detached

Home Priced $400,001 - $650,000 for the Built Green™ Idea Home

National Association of Home Builders. Silver Award – Best Attached Home Plan for Concord Commons

National Association of Home Builders. Silver Award – Best Electronic Media

2004

Pacific Coast Builders Conference. Gold Nugget Award for the Puget Sound Energy Built Green Idea Home

2003

Master Builders Association. Puget Sound's Highest Rated Built Green™ Community

United States Green Building Council. Silver LEED® (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) Award for Fire Station #73

American Planning Association. Merit Award for Partnering with the City of Issaquah

Shared Strategy Puget Sound Conference. Recognized for Salmon Protection

Cascade Land Conservancy. Award for the permanent stewardship of Treemont Woodlands' public open space

-more

2001

VISION 2020 Award. “For promoting a livable region by helping implement VISION 2020 – the regional growth management, economic and transportation strategy”

2000

American Planning Association. Honor Award for King County Transfer of Development Rights

1997

American Planning Association. Honorable Mention – Urban Design Guidelines

1995

American Planning Association. Merit Award – Community Plan

#